COMMERCIAL SOLICITOR WANTED

ABOUT UNDERWOODS SOLICITORS

We act for high profile commercial and private clients all over the world, while remaining a small close-knit firm based in Hemel Hempstead, Manchester and Cape Town.

Our commercial clients range from sole traders to PLCs.

The firm generally covers the full range of work, and the only type of law that we do not do is criminal. The firm has a number of very high profile clients including senior politicians, members of the Judiciary, footballers and actors.

All secretarial work is carried out in our office in South Africa, which also provides administrative support, as well as carrying out Anglo South African law.

We are looking for a lawyer, not a secretary – you will not be expected to type!

The work includes:

- Business sales and purchases;
- Setting up companies;
- Company advice;
- Insolvency matters, including working with Insolvency Practitioners.

We have a separate employment team headed by Senior Partner and former Employment Judge Kerry Underwood.

The successful candidate will be someone who takes responsibility and who wants to take part in developing and managing the firm.

To apply please send CV and covering email to robert.males@lawabroad.co.uk.
